PINKY PROMISE Alliance

"We are advocates for our community, whether it's on behalf of our clients as they make the largest investment of their lives, or supporting Office Moms & Dads as they champion foster children. Community is at our core."

*- Wollam & Associates,
Pinky Promise Alliance Member*

Pinky Promise Alliance is Office Moms & Dads' corporate giving platform where community-minded businesses have a chance to make a real and tangible difference in the lives of children entering foster care.

Pinky Promise Alliance is about relationships, not transactions.

When Office Moms & Dads launched in 2013, it was through the collective effort and commitment of numerous community members; no one person could do this work alone. It is through this lens that we view all partnerships, knowing it takes time and commitment from each local community to ensure kids have the support they need during their time of crisis.
